The bill of Mr. Connolly was read; which provides for the purchase of wood to the amount of $2.50, under the direction of the Mayor, for the use of the poor and the destitute of the city.

Mr. A. P. Clark moved that the wood be distributed through the Provident Aid Society.

Mr. O. S. Haker suggested that the amount ($4.50) he not expended at once, but that it be stored to be not expended at once, but that it be stored to be not expended at once, but that it be stored to be not expended at once, but that it be stored to be not expended at once, but that it be stored to be not expended at once, but that it be stored to be not expended at once, and the wood amount $4,500 was needed at once, and the wood should be purchased and placed in distribution. adopted rules for the distribution of charity which gave only to those worthy, and the society had facilities for finding out the needy and destitute.

Mr. Dation believed that the society would faithfully perform their duties, and distribute the wood properly made a few other remarks, led which head that charity was likely to be abused, as it has been in many cases. Private purses, were open to charity, and he thought it would be well, when the public could not give any more, for the clouncils to step in and assist. He thought that would be pleaty time for them to act.

Mr. Hell favored the passangs of the resolution, and called for the previous question.
